

Ensemble BREVE

Deborah Booth

Recorders, Renaissance,
Baroque, and Modern Flutes

BREVE is a chamber music ensemble founded in New York City in 1985. The group has toured the United States, Mexico, and Europe, offering its unique programs to audiences of all ages and cultures.

BREVE performs music of all centuries, on authentic instruments and in historically-informed style.

In addition to its repertoire of music from Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque, and Classical eras, BREVE has commissioned works by contemporary composers for its modern instrument combination.

BREVE is available for concerts, lecture/demonstrations, and school programs.
